GETTING HELP WITH YOUR HEALTH

Health care in the UK is FREE when you need it. In some cases you will need a referral.

Where to go

You can get help for physical and mental health from all of these services:

- Pharmacies: for minor illness and to get prescriptions
- 111: phone number that can provide advice and information including when your doctor is closed
- Doctors (GPs): all basic medical care including immunisations, flu, stress, anxiety, low mood etc. Referrals to specialist services
- Hospitals: specialist services – usually needs referral from the GP
- Urgent Care/Accident and Emergency: for emergencies when you need help right away
- 999 for emergencies where you can't get to a hospital

Register for a GP (doctor)

- You can register as soon as you apply
- It's free to do
- You don't need any specific information
- Go to the nearest GP practice (doctors office) and ask for a registration form
