

WELCOME NEWHAM NEWS.

Edition: February 2024

Welcome to our February newsletter. Our aim is to highlight activities and events happening in the area that may be of interest to you.

WELCOME NEWHAM.

ONE-STOP SHOP.

In partnership with the voluntary and community sector, we have launched a weekly one-stop shop.

The weekly one-stop shops provide an opportunity to access a number of different service offerings to help establish a life in Newham. These are drop-in sessions so people can attend anytime - there is no need to RSVP. We also speak multiple languages.

Please Note: NO One Stop Shop on Thursday 14th March 2024 due to staff training. We will be back on Thursday 21st March 2024.

Ramadan Mubarak to you and your loved ones. May the celebrations of this fasting month spread happiness and joys in your life. Wishing a blessed and cheerful Ramadan to you.

The second anniversary of the Russian invasion of Ukraine has been marked with church services, wreath-laying and demonstrations in the UK and Ireland.

Social Housing & Private Rented Sector Housing Sessions

Beginning the next phase of your life in the UK might seem daunting, Welcome Newham host Housing sessions every month. They are based in Stratford Library, 3 The Grove, London, E15 1EL from 3:30pm till 5:00pm.

The next session is:

- Thursday 7th March 2024
- Thursday 21st March 2024

At the workshop, you will meet with The PRS Team (Private Rented Sector Team) and the Homefinder organisation who are committed:

- To advise and assist you on the challenges you may face when you transition to living in the private rented sector (PRS).
- How Newham Council is able to support you when the time comes to move to the private rented sector / social housing.
- To provide guidance that can help you navigate the private housing sector maximising the likelihood of success.

In addition, we have stories for successful residents who have secured a PRS / Social Housing accommodation in and around the borough, so you can ask them questions about their experience and get useful information from them which can help you on your journey.

If you'll like to attend please email us at welcome.newham@newham.gov.uk or by calling 02033733222 with your information.

If you are a refugee currently living in NASS accommodation or a hotel and have received your leave to remain or eviction letter, please complete a HPAS application:

UEL After Dark Festival

Date: Thursday 29 February 2024

Time: 5pm – 8pm

Address: University of East London - University Way London E16 2RD

This year's UEL After Dark festival celebrates the Olympic and Paralympic year, as well as our very own Year of Science!

Join us at Docklands campus to be inspired on this special winter evening. Dazzling, world-renowned artists will light up our skies, and a range of immersive activities will showcase the power of technology.

We'll be welcoming students, staff, families and local businesses, providing the opportunity to illuminate, create and participate in a variety of artistic, scientific and movement-based activities, all free of charge. The evening will feature a parade with giant puppets created by UEL Theatre students under the guidance of War Horse and Life of Pi puppet-maker Charlie Tymms, African dance and drumming performances and magical installations. A variety of fresh street food and drinks will also be available.

Welcome Newham partnership with Small Grants Organisations

Organisations	Summary of Projects
Alternatives Trust	Courses in our Centre's 'Learning Hub' – a boardroom with a screen and donated laptops to fill basic skills gaps that prevent women from finding work or studying in the UK. They aim to help women be ready to find work when they have the immigration status that allows them to do so.
Bonny Downs Community Association	Family Hub project welcomes all refugee/ migrants/asylum seekers parents in Newham with dependent children who are struggling to raise family on their families on very low incomes and/or without the support network of extended family nearby. The free weekly drop-in group offers food, peer support, donated second hand clothing, parent-led cooking workshops, toys for the children to play with, and trained advocates who can help with immigration/housing/domestic abuse/school registrations
Eastside Community Heritage	This project aims to enable refugees to explore places in Newham and find out about their cultural, community and heritage associations.
Inspire Women, Men and Children	Help people prepare for life in Newham through social activities, training and volunteering opportunities.
Newham Community Project	Employability, healthy eating clubs, workshops on health, outreach and resettlement support
RDLAC	RDLAC Champion will provide support to the community making them aware of RDLAC projects including walk groups, art groups, mental health support groups, youth groups, gardening groups, cooking tutorials and hot meals, and friendships groups. In addition, there will be 10 funded places each month for individuals / families to join RDLAC monthly coach trips and community events.
Rosetta Arts	Work jointly on creative activities aimed at developing skills in textile-making and social entrepreneurship.

Welcome Newham partnership with Small Grants Organisations part 2

Organisations	Summary of Projects
Skills Enterprise	Provide monthly and weekly activities that will support refugees and people seeking asylum in building social connections, raising their awareness and knowledge about UK systems and accessing appropriate support.
The new Black Film Collective	Over the course of the project, we will hold nine events for groups moving into Newham: three for people of African heritage, three for people of Asian heritage and three for people of Eastern European heritage. Each of these events will be held at mostly Stratford East Picturehouse and will include a free screening, a culturally-specific performance, talks from members of the community and a series of stalls for businesses and services, which aim to support migrants settling in Newham.
